Peter and the Starcatcher--This October, Nueva School for the Performing Arts will be bringing Peter and the Starcatcher to the Windsor High School stage. Peter and the Starcatcher is the prequel to the J.M. Barrie classic, Peter Pan. This fantastical romp follows Peter and his "lost boys" as they tackle the high seas, piracy and treasure in the days just before Neverland. Clark Houston Lewis, former Broadway coach and resident director at Roustabout Theater is at the helm of this student led production. The set construction, costume design, marketing programs and (of course) acting is all done by WHS students through the dynamic Nueva project based learning model. Please join us for this exciting performance, and share your support for local arts in education! Peter and the Starcatcher will run in the Windsor High School Theater from Thursday Oct 5 through Sunday October 8. Thursday, Friday and Saturday shows will start at 7:00, Sunday matinee will start at 2:00. Tickets go on sale 1 hour before curtain: $10 for adults and $8 for students.
